All Souls' Day

All Souls' Day is an annual Christian feast day, to commemorate those who have died but are believed to be in purgatory. All Souls' Day has been tradition since the 11th Century and is dedicated to prayer for souls which are believed to be marked by lesser sins, in order to purify them for heaven.

All Souls' School for boys was established by the Bush Brotherhood of St Barnabas in 1920 as a memorial school to the fallen of the First World War.

St Gabriel's School for girls was established in 1921 by the Sisters of the Society of Sacred Advent.

Throughout the remainder of the twentieth century, the two schools provided an education for the children of northern Australia. Both schools became known for their ability to produce self-reliant and independent young men and women.

The old latin motto cui servire est regnare translates as "to serve is to reign".

*Holding in prayer
the young people preparing and taking exams at this time -that they will have the strong sense of God's care for them and be able to place their trust in Jesus as companion and friend.*

The Soldier's Prayer

Almighty God, whose command is over all, and whose love never fails, let me be aware of your presence, and obedient to your will.

Help me to accept my share of responsibility with a strong heart and cheerful mind. Make me considerate of those with whom I live and work, and faithful to the duties my country has entrusted to me.

Let my uniform remind me daily of the traditions of the Service in which I serve. When I am inclined to doubt, strengthen my faith. When I am tempted to sin, help me to resist. When I fail, give me the courage to try again.

Guide me with the light of your truth and keep before me the life and example of Jesus in whose name I pray. Amen.

A Prayer for the Royal Australian Air Force

O Lord our God, who has given us dominion over earth, air and sea.

We ask you to be present with us who are called to serve our country in the Royal Australian Air Force.

Give us courage, a steady nerve and ready mind.

Sustain us in days of preparation, in the daily routine of servicing and weary waiting.

Be with us in time of sudden peril and grant that under your mighty protection we may be preserved in body, soul and mind.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Naval Prayer

Eternal God, creator of the heavens and ruler of the raging seas, take under your powerful protection and bless all members of the Royal Australian Navy.

Preserve them from the dangers of the sea and strengthen them so that they may faithfully serve our country.

With the help of others who love freedom may they be able to ensure security for all those who lawfully travel the seven seas, and by their effort maintain for all people the possibility of serving you in peace and justice all through their lives.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Lest we forget

O GOD,

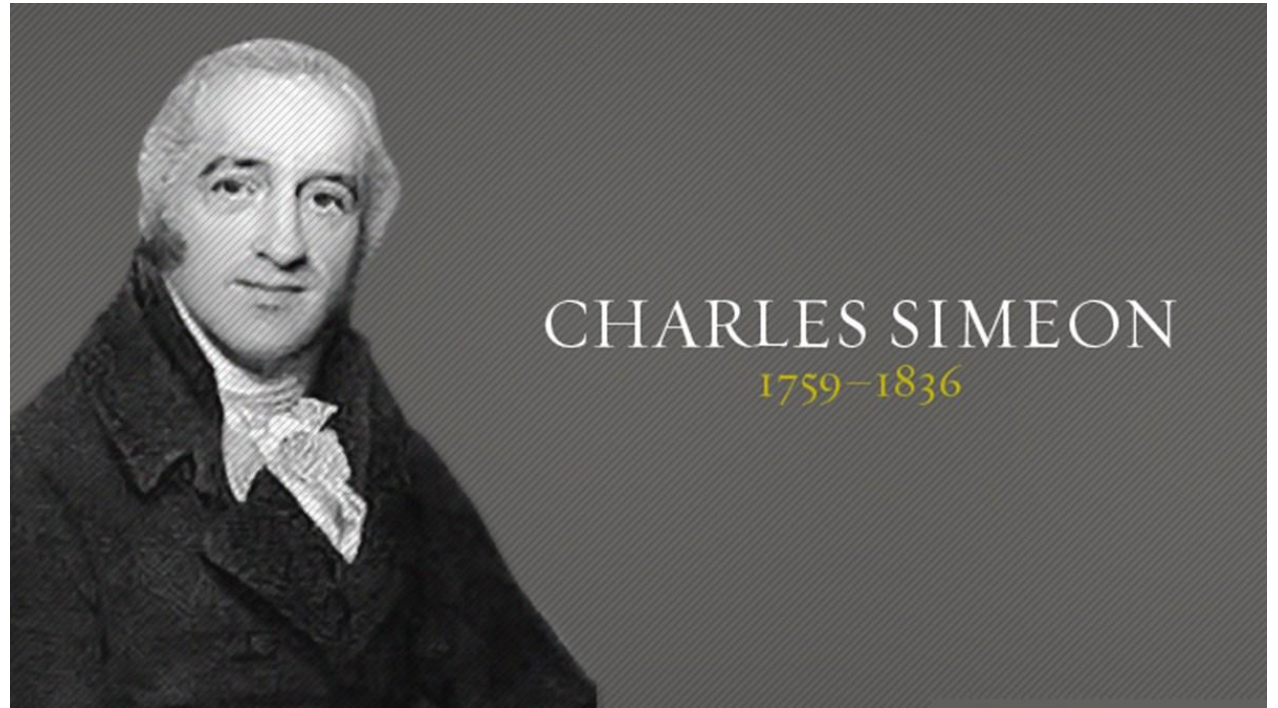

by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on our departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in you with your saints forever. Amen.

Prayer: USCCB - Prayer for Deceased Veterans

Charles Simeon was the pastor of Holy Trinity Anglican Church in Cambridge from 1782 to his death in 1836 – a period of 54 years. It is difficult to find anyone before Charles Simeon who set about so systematically to teach people to preach

By 1832 Simeon had published what he called a ‘skeleton’ or sermon outline on the entire bible – over 2,500 in all! They are quite detailed – a lot more flesh and blood than you might expect on a skeleton. But the skeletons were perhaps an outworking of his own experience as a preacher where for the first 7 years he said he ‘did not know the head from the tail of a sermon’.

Nov 26th -

There will be a static display in the Warrior's Chapel during these 16 days, where our focus is on the elimination of Gender Based Violence in the community

The 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence was started by activists at the inauguration of the Women's Global Leadership Institute in 1991.

Three decades on, the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence against Gender-Based Violence is a widely recognised global campaign that encourages action to end gender-based violence.

During the 16 Days, organisations and individuals around the world raise awareness that men's violence against women is a fundamental violation of human rights.

MEN'S VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The United Nations defines violence against women as "any act of gender-based violence that causes or could cause physical, sexual or psychological harm or suffering to women, including threats of harm or coercion, in public or in private life."

DRIVERS OF MEN'S VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

There are four factors that evidence has shown can drive men's violence against women. These are referred to as the gendered drivers of men's violence against women:

1. Condoning of violence against women. For example, blaming a woman for not leaving a violent partner.
2. Men's control of decision-making and limits to women's independence in public and private life. For example, the belief that men should be 'in charge' in their relationships and the bosses at work.
3. Rigid gender stereotyping and dominant forms of masculinity. For example, the idea that men must be tough and in charge, and that women should be submissive to men.
4. Male peer relations and culture of masculinity that emphasise aggression, dominance and control. For example, men using sexist or homophobic jokes to bond with each other.

A service to mark 16 Days of Activism will be held in St James Cathedral

NOVEMBER 25TH A Good Australian Is REV. JAMES NOBLE

One of the most notable aborigines Australia has ever known is a Queenslander. He is the Rev. James Noble who had the distinction of being the first full-blooded aboriginal to take holy orders. Many years ago he was picked up in the Normanton district, in the Gulf of Carpentaria country, by a drover. He was then only a boy, and the drover took him to Scone (New South Wales) where he was educated at the local Grammar School. Noble proved a brilliant scholar, and after a thorough theological training he was later ordained at St. George's Cathedral, Perth (Western Australia). Since then he has been engaged in missionary work in various parts of the Commonwealth. He did valuable work in controlling the fierce Roper River natives of the Northern Territory, and also in the Forest River district in the north-west of Western Australia, where he established a mission settlement, at which two of his daughters are now stationed as school teachers. (son is attending a secondary school at Charters Towers). For the last six years, Mr. Noble has been working at mission stations in North Queensland, and several of his students—male and female full, blooded aborigines have been sent to do missionary work among the natives of Papua and New Guinea.

Possessed of a clear-thinking brain, and gifted with natural eloquence, Noble is immensely popular amongst the natives of all the missions at which he has worked. He has often been described as a "white black-man," and he is well suited to look after the interests of his own race.

In the early 1890s he was a stockman for the Doyle brothers at Riversleigh on the Gregory River, and was taken south to Invermien, their station near Scone, New South Wales.

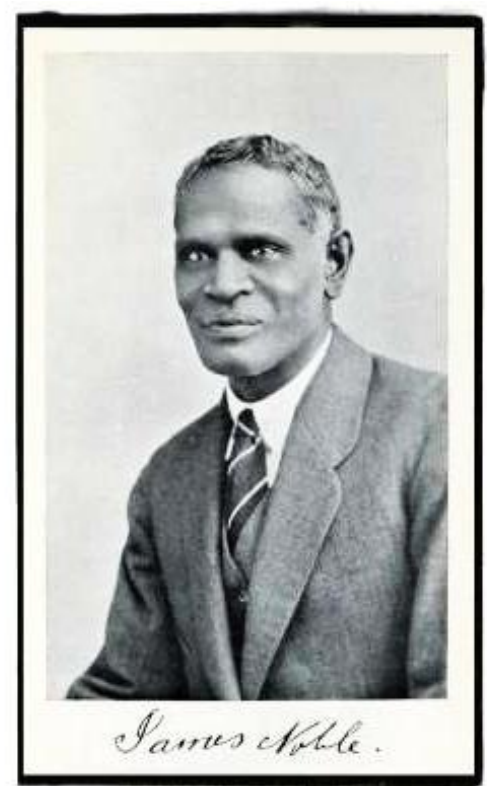

On 13 September 1925 he was made deacon at St George's Cathedral, Perth, before returning to Forrest River. Thus he became the first Aboriginal Anglican clergyman in Australia.

Friday, March 8, 1935.

Supporting Primary Education
in the Philippines

A St Mark's student shares with the Rev Juliana Bate what he is learning in English, his third language © Meagan Schwarz/ABM

St Mark's started from humble beginnings – a church converted into a classroom, with pews as the chairs. But so great was the demand for local primary education that they needed to expand.

A new building was added, and the now-complete ground floor houses two classrooms and a principal's office, enabling St Mark's to now offer classes for children from kindergarten up to Grade 3.

But to meet local needs, the school plans to add an additional classroom each year. By the end of 2028, it hopes to have the space to cater for all levels up to and including Grade 7.

To achieve this requires the construction of four new classrooms on level one of the existing building, followed by the laying of the foundations for the next four classrooms. A Campus Endowment Fund is also being established to sustain the school for years to come.

The plan is ambitious. But with your support, we can make this dream a reality and ensure kids in the Philippines get the primary education they need and deserve.

We give you thanks for the students, into a reality in Christ's name.

Primate: The Most Reverend Geoffrey Smith

Statement on the new Archbishop of Canterbury

4th October, 2025

I welcome the news overnight of the appointment of the Right Reverend and Right Honourable Dame Sarah Mullally, as the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury.

Bishop Sarah has served as the Bishop of London since 2018. She was ordained to the priesthood in 2001 after a career as a nurse highlighted by her tenure as the Government's Chief Nursing Officer for England.

An installation service for the new Archbishop of Canterbury is scheduled for March 2026 at Canterbury Cathedral.

Bishop Sarah has said: "I want, very simply, to encourage the Church to continue to grow in confidence in the Gospel, to speak of the love that we find in Jesus Christ and for it to shape our actions."

Please join me in praying for Bishop Sarah, the Church of England, and the wider Anglican Communion, as she prepares to take on this role.

DEATH OF MR. .E. J. B. WAREHAM

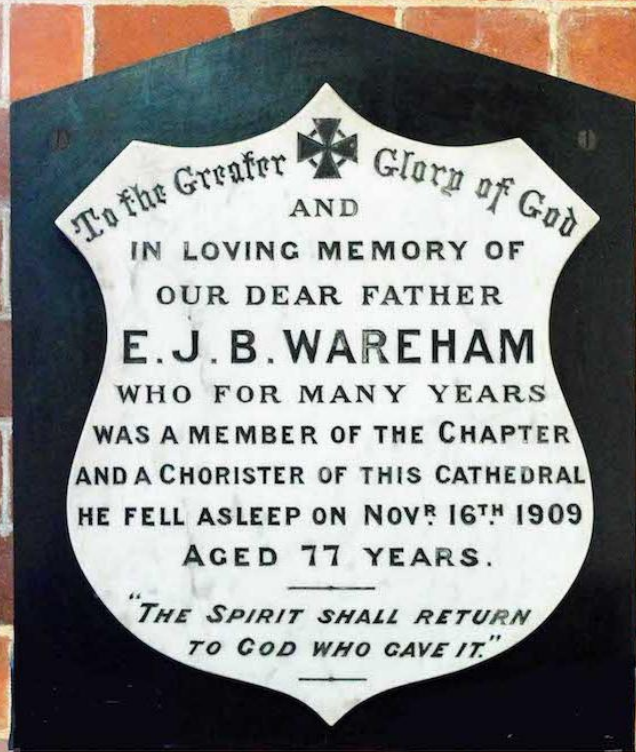

At Townsville Townsville this morning was robbed of one of its oldest, most prominent, and best respected citizens, in the person of Mr. E.J. B. Wareham, who passed away at the local hospital at 7 o'clock.
